

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STONE & PEWTER ACCENTS

MEDIA CONTACT:

Tanja Kern tkern@stonepewteraccents.com

Stone & Pewter Accents 417.522.9722

MATTHEW PIKE JOINS STONE & PEWTER ACCENTS AS DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL SALES

Los Angeles, Oct. 14, 2013– Stone & Pewter Accents, an authority in glass and mixed media artisan tile, announced that Matthew Pike has joined the company as Director of International Sales. Matt will be responsible for managing key accounts and developing global partnerships.

“Matt has a proven record of developing and managing long-term relationships through careful attention to client needs,” said Carl Steadly, owner of Stone & Pewter Accents. “He’s also a strategic thinker who can help the SPA team implement new business initiatives around the globe.”

Matt comes to SPA from Oceanside Glasstile where he managed major accounts and international sales. In his 12 years of tile industry experience, Matt has worked with dealers, architects and design firms and negotiated partnership programs in Australia, Russia and the Middle East. He also spearheaded development of private label lines for major North American tile retailers. He is an active member of the Tile Council of North America.

About Stone & Pewter Accents

Founded in 2002, Los Angeles-based Stone & Pewter Accents creates tile that marries handcrafted, time-honored techniques with modern sophistication and technology. Each tile — be it glass, stone, metal, ceramic or wood — has a one-of-a-kind story inspired by art, crafts and architectural artifacts from around the world. Discerning consumers and design professionals choose Stone & Pewter Accents for residential and commercial spaces because of its imagination, durability and design flexibility. To learn more about Stone & Pewter Accents tile, visit us online or through any of our authorized dealers.