

Inspired by the most memorable textile patterns and weaving techniques from around the world, Textile by Lunada Bay Tile recreates the look of fabric in lustrous glass. Borrowing inspiration from a Renaissance-era embroidery technique, Bargello is a flame stitch pattern that heralds from the Bargello palace in Florence. Imberline, inspired by the mid-century weaving technique, combines stripes of colored glass punctuated with metallic shimmer. Normandie Deco takes a cue from the opulent Deco furnishings found in a famous 1930s French luxury ocean liner.
