

The New Face of Tomei

“Color is the daughter of light,” said Le Corbusier, one of the most influential architects of the 20th century. And what better way to draw the connection between color and light than through the application of beautiful glass tile?

We are reintroducing the Tomei glass series with a fresh palette and a new collection of sizes and patterns inspired by great modern architects: Gehry, Hadid and Mies van der Rohe. Carefully curated, the colors accentuate architecture while providing a versatile blueprint for decorating any space.

from 1/2 x 1 Mini Brick to a larger format 3 x 12 Brick. Choose from 24 colors in 3 finishes-- natural, silk and pearl (pearl available in mini brick only). Use pale hues to create warmth, light and atmosphere, and apply the darker colors to enhance spatial effects, create drama or help a surface recede when necessary. In addition, stay tuned for a collection of designer Tomei blends that will launch in the next few months.
